

Controversies: Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings Corporation

- In 2010, Mitsubishi Chemical Holdings was found to have manipulated clinical testing data, and in 2011, it was also found to have sold new medicine without complete testing.
- In 2010, it was revealed that manipulation of wastewater data happened at the Mie branch of Mitsubishi Chemical. As a result of the investigation, several more wastewater data manipulation cases were found. It was also found that exhaust gas testing was not being implemented as required by law.