

Controversies: Indorama Ventures

- In July 2021, the Eleme local government in Rivers State in Nigeria, cautioned Indorama against any recurrence of river pollution, following an incident of toxic wastewater discharge by the company into Okulu river.
- In May 2021, it was found that out of just 20 petrochemical companies contributing to more than 50% of all single-use plastics that end up in our environment, Indorama is the fourth largest contributor following ExxonMobil, Dow, Sinopec.
- In May 2020, a study showed that only 20 companies are behind more than half of the world's single-use plastic waste. Indorama Ventures was one of them.
- No environmental violations are covered by Violation Tracker for the last 10 years