

Controversies: Teijin

- In July of 2020, a minor fire at Matsuyama plant because of alcohol leakage. No casualties reported.
- In February of 2019, soil contamination was found at the Anpachigun plant in Gifu. The levels of hexavalent chromium, lead, arsenic, fluorine and boron all exceeded the environmental standards. The cause remains unknown.
- Between 2012 and 2021, Teijin paid more than 5.000 USD in fines for 1 environmental violations, according to the violation tracker project of Good Jobs First.