

Controversies: Wanhua Chemical

- In June 2021, a Louisiana environmental justice leader won the prestigious Goldman Environmental Prize for her role in mobilising the community to successfully defeat a $1.3 billion plastics facility proposed by Wanhua Chemical.
- In September 2016, an explosion at a Wanhua Chemical plant in Yantai, China, killed four people and injured another four. The deadly accident occurred a day before Greenpeace released a report on the Chinese chemical industry's poor safety record. Wanhua Chemical was fined approximately 125,000 USD for the incident.
- The company is not listed on violation tracker of Goods Jobs First